Michael Forest to perform at conference

Michael Forest, a member of the Conservatory Choir at Shenandoah College and Conservatory of Music will perform with the choir at the Virginia Music Educators Conference in Norfolk on Dec. 1.

The choir will give a concert for the convention at 11 a.m. in the Holiday Inn Ballroom across from the Norfolk Scope Stadium. Michael will be singing a solo with the choir entitled "Viderunt Omnes", by the 12th century composer Leonin.

Mr. Forest was also selected through a taped audition to perform on a recital at the convention in Norfolk at 1:30 p.m. on Dec. 1. Michael will receive a certificate from the state of Virginia for being chosen to sing on this recital.

Michael will perform two French songs by Duparc, an operatic aria by Donizetti, and a spiritual arranged by Hal Johnson.

Michael participated in the regional Metropolitan Opera Auditions at Wolf Trap and was called back to audition for the preliminary semi-finals. He was chosen to be an alternate at a vocal master class for the winners of the semi-finals of the Reg. Met. Opera Auditions held at the National Art Gallery in Washington D.C. in March 1985.

Mr. Forest has also just performed the role of the Magician, Nika Magadoff, in Gian Carlo Menotti's dramatic opera, The Consul, with the Shenandoah Theatre. The action of the opera takes place in Europe around 1950 where people are trying to obtain visas to leave the country.

Michael, a senior music education major in the Conservatory of Music, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Forest Sr. of Appomattox, Va. He is a 1981 graduate of Randolph Henry
